Introduction for Parents.

In the name of Allah the Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy.

This year the Muslim world will live through another unique Ramadhan. We will experience this blessed month in relative isolation from our communities, friends and in many cases even family members. We will experience a Ramadhan without some of the distinctions which ordinarily make Ramadhan so special.

Our Ramadhan will be largely restricted to our own homes, with only our closest family members as close company. As Muslims, we believe all this is due to a wisdom which only Allah knows – perhaps this will cause us to appreciate our Islam, communities and the Masaajid even more.

In such situations, the Muslims must pull together and help each other, in line with the saying of Allah,
{By time, Indeed, mankind is in loss, Except for those who have believed and done righteous deeds and advised each other to truth and advised each other to patience} [Soorah Al-Asr]

This booklet has been compiled (and updated for Ramadhan 2021) in an effort to make our children's Ramadhan more fruitful. It has been designed for 7 to 11 year olds, however if your child is younger or not able to read fluently, they can still benefit from the booklet if you help them with the reading and understanding. There are 30 different activities, one for each day of Ramadhan and should only take approximately 10-15 minutes to complete. After completing each of the quizzes or puzzles, encourage your child to check the answers (in the answer booklet, found on our website: www.IslamNelson.com/Resources) straight away and make corrections in a different coloured pen. The corrections will then stand out so they can review and learn from their mistakes.

In ending, I would like to thank my wife for proof reading the draft and advising me on some alterations. I must also thank my children for their input and help. Any remaining mistakes are from myself and shaytaan. May Allah accept this humble effort.

Of course, no book is perfect – besides the noble book of Allah, so if you have any thoughts, find any mistakes or you have suggestions for future versions, we would welcome them. Please email us your thoughts to:

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS BEFORE YOU BEGIN YOUR FIRST FAST

Why do we fast?

We have to always remind ourselves that we are fasting for the sake of Allah alone, to please Him and to attain reward from Him.

What is the benefit of fasting?

The main benefit is for us to become better Muslims. Whilst we are fasting, it's not just about not eating and drinking, but we have to control what we say, what we listen to and what we watch.

What other acts of worship can I do during Ramadhan?

Ramadhan is known as the month of the Qur'an. This is because in Ramadhan, we fast and we also increase how much Qur'an we read. Many people finish reciting the Qur'an a few times during Ramadhan. So set yourself a target - how much will you finish?

We should also make as much Dua as we can whilst we are fasting, always remember Allah, say Dhikr and fulfil all our Prayers.

Are there any special times to make Dua in Ramadhan?

We can make Dua anytime in the day and night, however there are some special times for Dua as well. They include: before breaking the fast, in your Sujood and after the Adhan.

Who should I make Dua for?

Make Dua for yourself, and make Dua for every person you love. Firstly, your parents and also brothers and sisters, grandparents, and all your relatives. Do not forget your friends and neighbours. If you know of an ill, lonely or poor person, make Dua for them.

How can I be a better Muslim during Ramadhan?

Think about which actions please Allah - do them. Think about which actions makes Allah angry - do not do them. Also, try to learn and read more about Islam.

How can I have a healthy Ramadhan?

During long hot days, you have to make sure you drink plenty of water before you begin your fast and after you break your fast. Make sure you eat your Suhoor meal, do not over eat at Iftar time and swap fizzy drinks for water. Also remember to eat a variety of fruits and vegetables.

The most important actions of Islam are known as the 5 pillars of Islam. As soon as we are old enough, we have to make sure we do them.

 From the list below, tick ✓ the 5 pillars of Islam. Then, on a separate piece of paper, draw a small picture that represents each pillar.

Being a good person

Paying Zakah (Charity)

Fasting in Ramadhan

Reading the Qur'an

Praying 5 times a day

Helping your parents

Shahadah: Believing that none has the right to be worshipped except Allah alone and Muhammad ﷺ is His messenger.

Hajj

Going shopping with mum

 Once you have finished drawing the pictures, ask an adult in your home to guess which picture matches with each pillar.

How many did they guess correctly?

Thought of the day

Every time you make Dua, do not forget the most important people in your life - your parents.

Which Dua will you make for them next time?

It is important that our houses are always clean and tidy, and smelling nice. When there is a happy event such as Eid or a new baby, we can make our houses nice by decorating them. We can also decorate our houses when Ramadhan comes.

Today, we are going to make our own decorative paper lantern!

You will need:

- 1) A4 card (or Paper)
- 2) Stapler (or Glue/Glue stick/Sellotape)
- 3) Scissors

Ask an adult to log onto the following address: www.IslamNelson.co.uk/Resources

After scrolling down the page, you will find our 5 minute video demonstrating how to make the lantern in just 6 easy steps.

Written Instructions:

Step 1: Layout the A4 sheet as landscape.

Step 2: Cut out a 2cm strip from the shorter end.

Step 3: Fold the main sheet in half along the long edge.

Step 4: Make cuts 2cm apart on the folded side.

Step 5: Open the sheet and staple (or glue) together the shorter edges.

Step 6: Use the strip to make the handle by stapling each end to the top of the lantern.

Thought of the day

Cleaning the house is not only your mum's responsibility, we have to all do our share of the work.

What can you do every day to make the cleaning easier?

In Arabic, the 5 Daily Prayers are called Salah. The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said regarding them, "The difference between us (Muslims) and them (non-Muslims) is the Salah. Whoever leaves it has disbelieved." [1]

When you are 7 years old you have to start praying regularly, and after 10 years old you are not allowed to miss a Prayer. This is because the prayer is one of the main differences between a Muslim and a non-Muslim.

 In the boxes on the left, write the 5 daily prayers in order. Next, match each prayer with the correct number of Fardh Raka'at by drawing a line between the boxes on the left with the numbered boxes on the right.

Reminder of spellings: Isha - Maghrib - Fajr - Dhuhur - Asr

1st Salah:

4 Raka'at

2nd Salah:

4 Raka'at

3rd Salah:

2 Raka'at

4th Salah:

4 Raka'at

5th Salah:

3 Raka'at

Thought of the day

When you stand to pray, remember you are praying to Allah; when you say anything in Salah, you are saying it to Allah. Remember that every time you are about to pray.

Our Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said, “The pleasure of the Lord is in the pleasure of the parents, and the displeasure of the Lord is in the displeasure of the parents.” [2]

This means that when your parents are pleased and happy with you then Allah is also pleased and happy with you. If your parents are angry and not happy with you then Allah is also angry and not happy with you.

 Today, make your parents extra happy by writing them a small thank you note for all the things they have done for you.

You could begin with:

Dear parents,

.....

.....

Thought of the day

Whatever we do for our parents, we will never be able to repay them for the amount of goodness they have done for us. But try to do a small kind action for them every day, and never forget them in your Duas.

The Prophet ﷺ used to always encourage people to do good actions, and there are different ways to encourage people to do good.

Today we are going to Design a T-shirt so it has an Islamic message to encourage people to do a good deed that is pleasing to Allah.

Thought of the day

Remember, actions speak louder than words.
What actions can you think of that you could perform so it gives people an Islamic message?

Ask an adult to log onto www.Madeenah.com/in-todays-assembly

Scroll down to 'Assembly Oct' 19'

Read the 5 questions below first.

Next, listen to this 12 minute assembly by Ustadh Abul Abbaas Naveed.

Answer the questions as you are listening. (You may need to pause the assembly)

Q1) What will happen if, in this life, we behave as good Muslims?

Q2) How do you become a good Muslim?

Q3) Is it better to read 10 pages of the Qur'an once a month or half a page every day? (Tick ✓ the correct answer below)

10 Pages once a month

Half a page a day

Q4) In the assembly a child called Musa mentioned a good action that can be done regularly (all the time). What did he say?

Q5) What did Ustadh Abul Abbaas say was a good deed that was easier than all the things the children said?

Learn these words, they will come up again later in this booklet:

Tawheed: Worshiping Allah alone. The opposite of Tawheed is 'Shirk'.

Suhoor: Early morning meal you have (before Fajr prayer) when you are fasting.

Iftar: The meal you have (at the time of Maghrib prayer) when breaking the fast.

Taraweeh: The late evening prayers during Ramadhan.

Sunnah: This means 'a way'. For example the Sunnah (way) of Muhammad ﷺ.

Hadith: What the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said, did or allowed.

Thought of the day

Every Muslim has to learn about Islam, so do lots of reading, listen to Islamic audios and even watch Islamic videos. Try to learn something new every day.

Ramadhan is a special month, which means we have to behave much differently in Ramadhan. We should try to do more Islamic things, and stay away from bad things.

 Draw an up arrow next to those things which we should do even more of during Ramadhan and draw a down arrow next to the things we should do less of or not at all. One has been completed for you.

Window shopping

Sleeping all day

Playing computer games

Watching films & cartoons

Speaking nicely

Reading Qur'an

Showing kindness

Helping others

Being on the phone all day

Remembering Allah (Dhikr)

Taraweeh

Fighting

Arguing

Lying

Can you think of 5 more tasks that should be increased and 5 that should be decreased this month?

Thought of the day

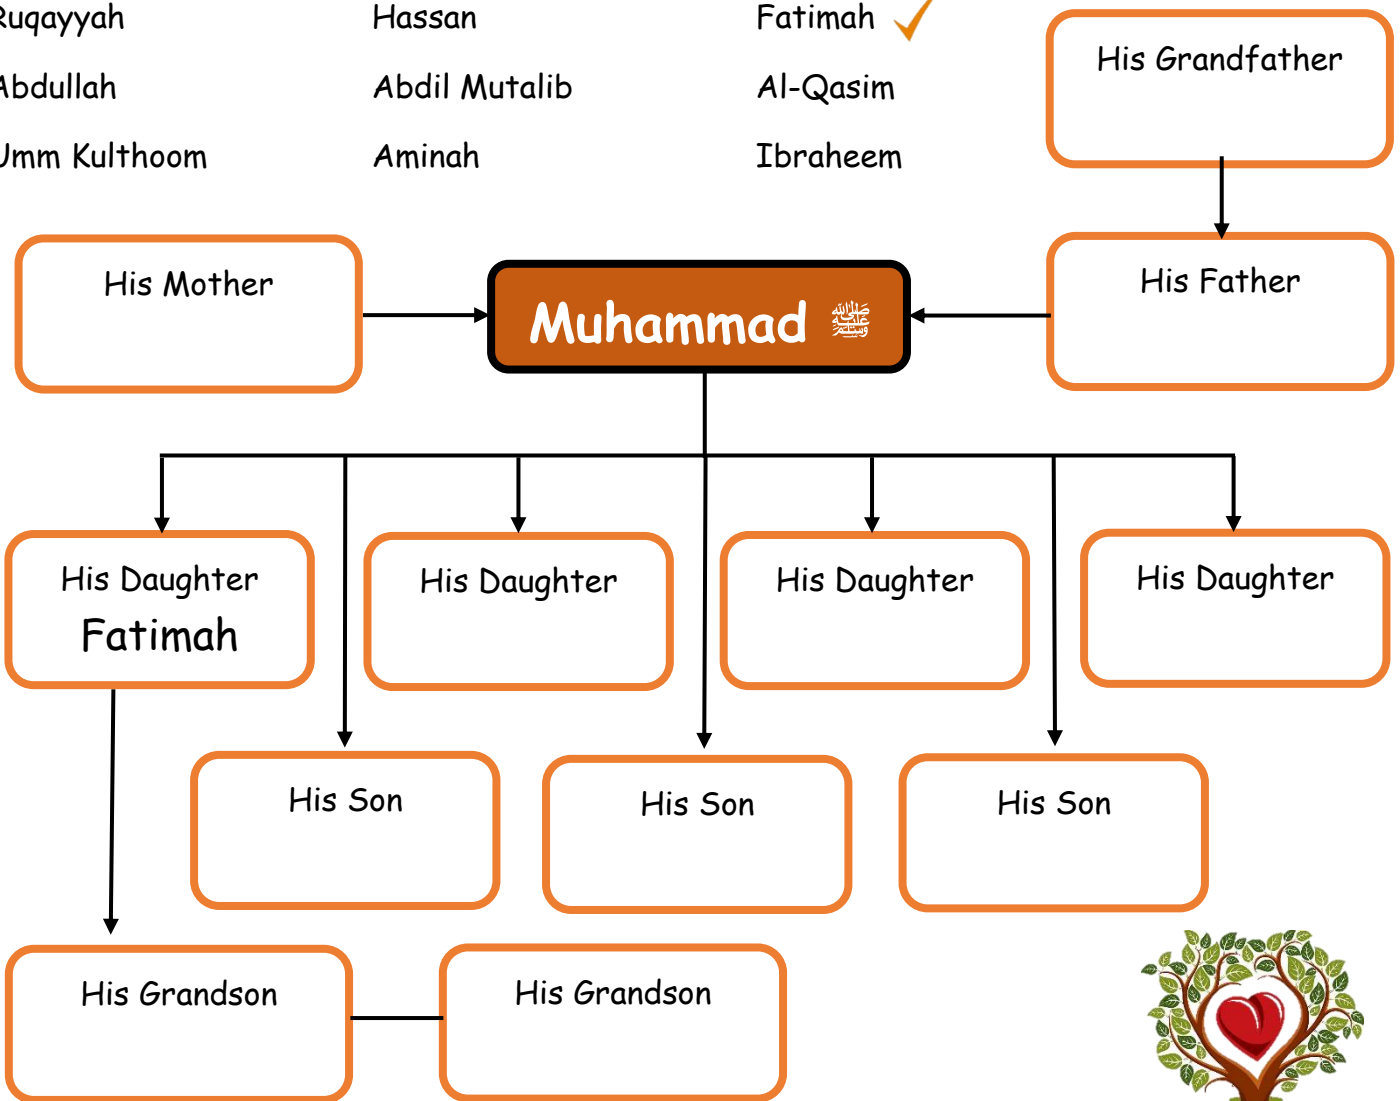

What is the point in not eating and drinking during Ramadhan, if a person says bad words and does not pray?
This is why the Prophet said, “Whoever does not leave false speech and evil actions, Allah is not in need of his leaving food and drink.” [3]

If we really love our Prophet ﷺ, we should learn about him. Let's see how much we know about his family.

✏ Fill in the Prophet's ﷺ family tree using the clues and names below and add them to their correct position.

Abdil Mutalib's daughter in law is Aminah. Her husband is Abdullah. Umm Kulthoom's nephew is Hussein and her sister is Fatimah. Hassan is Hussein's brother. Ibraheem is the grandson of Aminah and he is also the brother of Abdullah. Ruqayyah and Zainab are the sisters of Al-Qasim.

Thought of the day

The more you learn about the Prophet, the more you will love and admire him. Learning about his life is called the Seerah. Think about buying a good Seerah book? Or listen to a series of lessons on his biography here: www.madeenah.com/a-brief-study-of-the-life-of-the-prophet-and-his-ten-companions/

 Complete the crossword puzzle using the clues. Use a pencil, in case you make a mistake.

Thought of the day
 Good friends in this life will be together in the next life, in Paradise (inshaAllah). Think about your closest friend. What do you like about them? Why are they a good friend? How could you be a better friend to them?

Muslims have a long history of inventing things. Did you know the first camera, windmill, soap and even the numbers we all write were invented by Muslims.

 Today, you are going to design an invention which is going to change the world! This could be a helpful machine that would make life easier or solve a problem people face, such as a faster way of travelling. Draw and label your idea below.

Take a photo of it & email it to Academy@islamnelson.co.uk together with your Name, age & city for a chance to win a £10 cash prize for the best submission.

Submission deadline: 20th Ramadhan.

Thought of the day

The Prophet ﷺ said, "The most beloved people to Allah are those who are most beneficial to people..." [4]

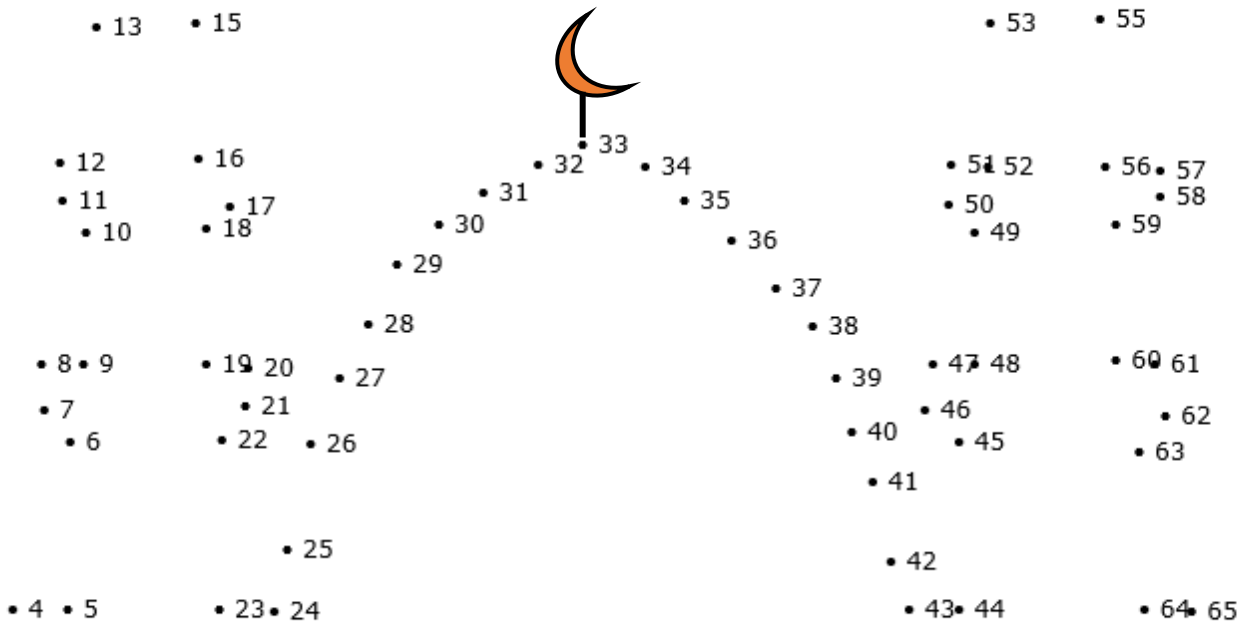

This includes being helpful to all people, Muslims and non-Muslims.

Use a ruler and a pencil to complete this dot to dot activity to reveal the image. Start from 1 in the bottom left and continue to 94. After you have finished, colour it in to make it look even more beautiful.

Thought of the day

In the sight of Allah, the best places on earth are the Masaajid.

Do you attend your local Masjid often?

Some Muslims do not have to fast.

✎ Draw a tick ✓ next to the people mentioned below who do not need to fast.

Someone who is sick and will be harmed by fasting

Someone feeling a little hungry

A traveller

A young child

A busy person

A person who is very old and fasts with difficulty

Someone who is feeling lazy

Someone feeling a little thirsty

However, anyone who misses a fast should make it up after Ramadhan if they can.

If they are not able to make it up (for example if they have a long-term illness or are very old and will find it too difficult), then they should feed a poor person for every fast they missed in Ramadhan.

Thought of the day

The prophet ﷺ encouraged us to make things easy for people and not make things difficult.

Do you help make things easy for people?

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said: "...Allah helps the servant as long as he helps his brother..." [5]

This means if you keep helping your Muslim brother or sister then Allah will keep helping you. This includes helping your family.

 On this 14th day of Ramadhan, do at least one extra thing to help your family without them having to ask you. There are some ideas below.

❖ Wash up

❖ Help set the table

❖ Help your parents feel happy by hugging them

❖ Clean a room in your home

❖ Take care of your younger brother or sister by playing a game they like

❖ Ask your parents to phone your grandparents so you can speak to them and help make them happy

❖ Ask your parents what you could do to help them today

❖ Add your own helpful idea here:

 Draw a tick ✓ next to the helpful thing you did today.

Thought of the day
 As we learnt earlier in this booklet, the best actions are those we do regularly.
 Which of the actions above will you begin to do more regularly?

Qur'an: "Indeed, Allah does not forgive association [shirk] with Him, but He forgives what is less than that for whom He wills. And he who associates others with Allah has certainly fabricated a tremendous sin". [4:48]

This means that shirk (making partners with Allah) is such a bad thing that Allah will not forgive someone who does this if they do not ask for forgiveness before they pass away. Although, Allah may forgive us for some of the other bad things we may do.

Can you tell the difference between some of the 5 different types of shirk below and other bad things that are not shirk?

 Make a line between the 'shirk' box in the middle and its different types. One has been completed for you.

Thought of the day

Shirk is so bad that Allah will not forgive the one who does it. There are many different types of Shirk. It is important we study this subject in detail so that we can always stay away from all types of Shirk.

Can you help little Mus'ab quickly escape the market place and find his way to the Masjid on time for the prayer?

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said: “Whoever purifies himself in his house then walks to one of the houses of Allah in order to perform one of the duties enjoined by Allah, for every two steps he takes, one will erase a sin and the other will raise him one degree in status”^[6]

Thought of the day

Remember this hadith every time you make wudu in your house then walk to the Masjid, for example, to pray. Insha'Allah every two steps you take, Allah will forgive you for something bad that you did & He will increase your position.

As we are now more than half way through Ramadhan, some people may begin to feel lazy and not get up in time to have the Suhoor meal before fasting.

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said, “The Suhoor is a blessed meal, so do not abandon it even if you take only a sip of water. Verily, Allah and his angels send blessings upon those who take the Suhoor.” [7]

Draw your own Suhoor meal below. Remember to keep it healthy!

Thought of the day

Along with following the Sunnah, there is lots of wisdom in taking the Suhoor meal.

It gives us strength to worship Allah & helps us avoid a bad mood due to being very hungry. Can you think of others?

 Using a pencil and ruler, draw a line to match each of the words on the left to its 'opposite' on the right. One has been completed for you.

Thought of the day

It is useful to learn about the opposites to good actions so that we can stay away from these.

A man said, “O Messenger of Allah, should I tie my camel and trust in Allah, or should I leave her untied and trust in Allah?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Tie her and trust in Allah.” [8]

This shows we should always trust Allah in helping and keeping us safe. However, at the same time, we must also be careful and do what we are able to do ourselves (take precautions) to keep us safe.

 Can you circle at least 10 dangerous hazards in little Nusaybah's family kitchen to help keep her and her family safe?

Thought of the day

How can you help keep things safe in your home?

Think of things that may seem safe but could potentially be a cause of danger. Do what you can to reduce the danger.

Laylatul Qadar is a special night that could be on any odd night in the last 10 nights of Ramadhan. It is better than 1000 months! We should do extra good deeds on these nights, hoping one of them will be Laylatul Qadar, so that we may be rewarded hugely by Allah.

 Put an up arrow next to the things which we could do even more of during the odd nights of Ramadhan and put a down arrow next to the things we should do less of or not at all.

Make extra dua

Stay up late to talk to others

Pray Nawafil prayers

Ask Allah to forgive us

Sleep longer on this night

Read extra Qur'an

Read the dua: Laa illaha illa anta subhanaka ini kuntu minaz-zalimeen

Making Dhikr (remembering Allah)

Thought of the day

Because it is the 20th day of Ramadhan today, tonight will be the first odd night of the last 10 days of the month (21st night of Ramadhan).

What extra worship will you do tonight?

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said, “There is no Muslim who plants a tree or sows seeds and then a bird, or a person, or an animal eats from it except that it is regarded as a charity for him.” [9]

This shows that growing plants and trees from which living creatures eat, is something Allah loves for us to do and He will reward us for it.

Plan your own garden by drawing fruits and vegetables you would like to grow in the two rows of vegetable patches above.

Thought of the day

Why not gain extra reward on this day of Ramadhan by growing your own plant? Take the seed from an apple and plant it in a small pot. Later, once it sprouts, you can move it into a garden.

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said, "The strong believer is more beloved to Allah than the weak believer, but there is goodness in both of them..." [10]

✏ Draw a tick ✓ next to things that make us stronger (physically & mentally) & a cross ✗ next to those that make us weaker. Two have been completed.

Riding a bike ✓

Using a car for short journeys

Controlling our anger

✗ Being sad

Eating too much

Going to bed late

Thought of the day

Which of the above actions will you begin to do more regularly so you can become a stronger believer?

List or draw what you would do to help make the world a better place, if Allah made you very rich and blessed you with a million pounds! Start off by deciding on amazing Eid gifts for your family.

Thought of the day

Imam as-Shaafi' said in a poem: If you have a content (happy heart), then you and the one who owns everything in the world are equal. [10]

Qur'an: "So remember Me; I will remember you..." [2:152]

This means as long as we remember Allah then Allah will remember us. When Allah remembers us, He will help us and keep us safe and happy.

فَاذْكُرُونِي أَذْكَرْكُمْ

Fazkurooni Azkurkum

 Learn and memorise the words above from the Qur'an (in Arabic and in English), so it will help you remember Allah more. Ask your parents to test you on it for the next 3 days.

Thought of the day

Tonight will be another odd night of Ramadhan. Try to remember Allah more.

 Using a ruler, draw a line to match each of the correct Arabic pronunciations with the way some English speakers refer to the names of some Prophets. One has been completed for you.

On the day of Eid we should wear our best clothes.

On the hanger draw what you will, inshaaAllah, wear on Eid.

Thought of the day

Did you know boys are not allowed to wear gold jewellery or silk material.

The Prophet ﷺ said, "These two [gold and silk] are forbidden for the males of my ummah and permissible for the females" [12]

Do you remember to include all the Muslims in your duas, just as other Muslims make dua for you?

Get yourself and your family in celebratory mood by designing and creating your own Eid bunting! Well done on completing your Ramadhan fun activity booklet! May Allah accept your and our efforts during Ramadhan. Taqabal Allah Minna wa Minkum!

Eid Mubarak! عيد مبارك

Thought of the day

Sadly, Ramadhan is now over.

What good habits from Ramadhan will you now continue with after Ramadhan?
